Laurie A. Hauptman, Hauptman & Hauptman, Named Champion of Wise Women 2019

- Hauptman & Hauptman, guiding families through life's transitions –

Livingston, NJ – Laurie A. Hauptman, Partner, Hauptman & Hauptman, P.C., was recently recognized for her partnership and commitment to helping the senior and elderly populations. Atria Norwood was proud to honor Laurie with this award for her dedication to helping older adults continue lives of engagement.

Atria Norwood, an assisted living facility located in the borough of Bergen County in Norwood NJ, is geared toward providing a comfortable and eventful living situation for their residents.

Laurie A. Hauptman is a partner at Hauptman & Hauptman, PC. She is a New Jersey and New York licensed attorney who has concentrated her practice on estate, elder and special needs law for over 20 years. Additionally, Laurie is a Department of Veterans Affairs' accredited attorney for the preparation, presentation and prosecution of claims for veterans benefits. She has been intrinsically involved with helping thousands of families navigate the circuitous and emotional journey through the long-term and special needs process. Laurie was a trial attorney in a litigation firm before joining forces with her husband, Yale. Her courtroom experience is essential to handling the firm's court work, including guardianships, conservatorships and special needs trusts. Civically and community minded, she is a member of the United Way Caregivers Coalition Steering Committee, Co-Chairperson of the Elder and Disability Law Committee of the Essex County Bar Association and a frequent lecturer on estate, special needs and elder law planning topics.
